TRIAL ITALIAN CHAMPIONSHIP 2023

TOLMEZZO

Over the past weekend, the first round of the Italian Trial 2023 Championship was run in Tolmezzo (Udine), with 'Format A'. The locations in the same places that last year hosted the Trial World Championship presented a high technical level and the riders were immediately called upon to bring out their best. The organisation of the MC Carnico proved to be excellent and the race weekend attracted a large crowd to support the riders in the various zones.

In the Top Category, TR1, Lorenzo Gandola finished in fourth place, just a few points behind the podium, while Carlo Alberto Rabino finished fifth.

In the TR2 Category Gabriele Saleri was the author of an excellent performance, which placed him on the top step of the podium.

In the TR3 Open, Andrea Buschi finished third.

In the Women's A class, Andrea Sofia Rabino, the reigning Champion, ran an excellent race, winning with only 6 penalties, and distancing her pursuers by more than 20 penalties.

Next appointment with the Italian Trial Championship on 13-14 May in Civita Castellana (Viterbo) under the organisational direction of the Moto Club Trial Centre.
