The Italian Trial Championship took place last weekend in Piazzatorre (Bergamo), for the fourth scheduled stage.

The race was in 'Format A' with 12 zones, 7 of which were in the river bed, while the remainder were in the forest undergrowth. All the zones were quite long and very demanding for the competing riders.

In the TR1 Matteo Grattarola took the top step of the podium after a long battle with Petrella, while third position went to Carlo Alberto Rabino, who achieved his first podium in the Category at the end of an excellent race.

In the "Women's Category A" Andrea Sofia Rabino dominated the race with only 9 penalties, clearly distancing her pursuers.

In the other categories, Gabriele Saleri was third in TR2, Valletta third in TR3, and Andrea Panteghini third in TR3 Open. Erica Bianchi was third in Female B, while in TR4 Luca Baschenis won.
